CONESTOGA

1983-1984

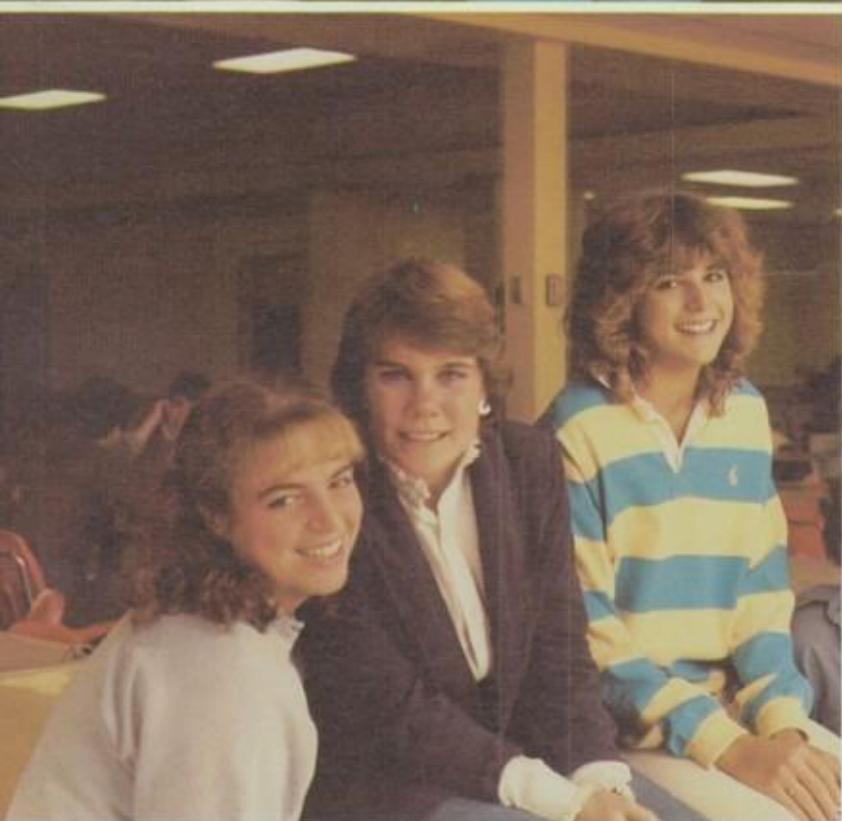

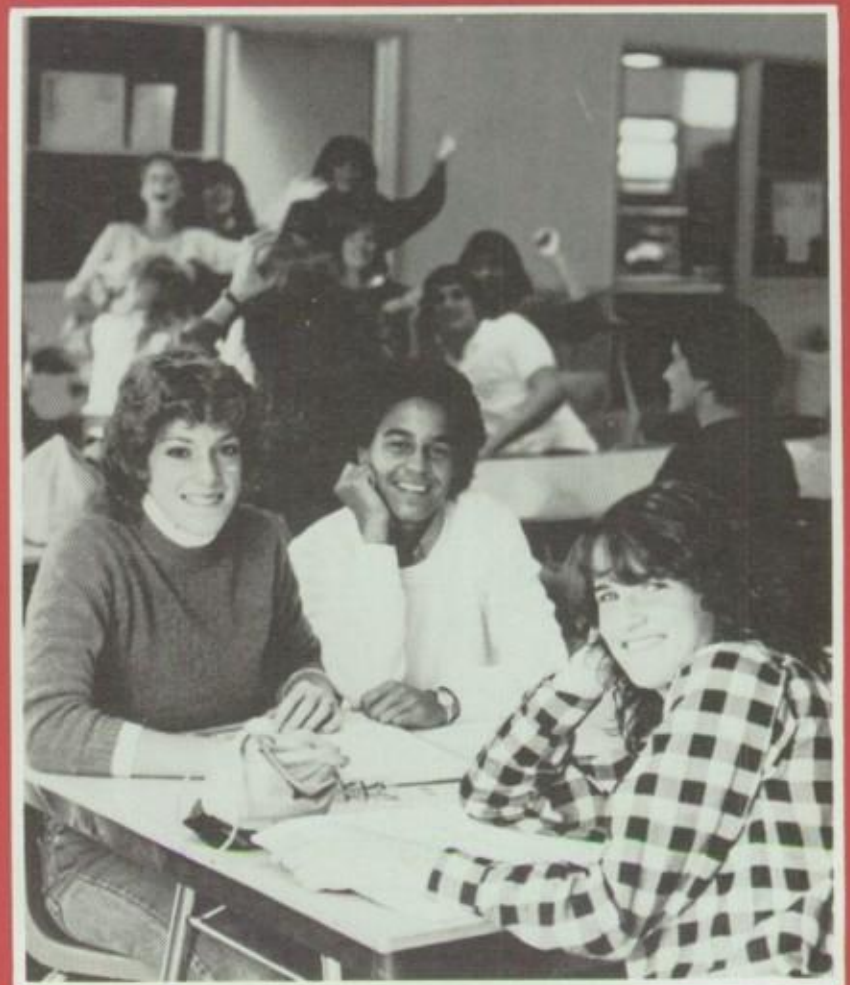

In this year of turbulence and disorder, we hope for peaceful endings to all our strifes. Please give us the strength to aid countries without getting ourselves embroiled in any more conflict. The lives of young men and women who have great futures ahead of them are at stake. We have great dreams to pursue, and our lives have just begun. Please, give us a chance. Please, give peace a chance.

seniors

Now this is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. But perhaps the end of the beginning.

Preceded by the ominous predictions set forth by George Orwell in his book, the class of 1984 entered the Big "C" under what seemed to be a cloud of doom. This was the year the community decided to convene, form a committee, and seriously attack what they deemed to be the drinking problem of teenagers in Tredyffrin Easttown. Most of us considered it "partying," a tradition passed down to us by our predecessors which we intended to procure and, in turn, pass on to those below us. David Toma, however, introduced us to the reality of the situation. To those of us who chose to ignore his message — well, a run-in with the T/E police usually did the job (busted!). There is no doubt in our minds that somewhere along the way our class, at that time the youngest, caught the blame for this crackdown, and hence was pushed even deeper into the lowly depths of sophomore-dom.

The fall was brightened by the election of our good-looking Homecoming Court of Dave McKenzie, Scott Bruce, John Derham, Debbie Schlegel, Cindy Purkiss, and Cindy Curtis. We were also successful in selecting dedicated class officers: President - Cindy Purkiss, Vice President - Debbie Schlegel, Secretary - Maren Roth, Treasurer - Joe Staszak, who successfully organized our class float. Unfortunately their dedication was not enough to get the infamous "Capricorn I" off the ground.

The Battle of the Pioneers displayed what was really on the minds of the '84ers when "Copenhagen" appeared as our class logo. Although we did not prove superior in battle, we were superior on the dance floor at the (now annual) Morp dance. Our support was also evident at the Hooters concert, where those of us who were showing too much support received a once-over by (once again!) the T/E police.

We entered our junior year without much ado. The realization that we had lost the enthusiasm of our sophomore year and were not close enough to leaving to rally hope, was made and most of us believed it would be a pretty "beat" year ... little did we know!

Early on it was discovered that "Weekends were made for Juniors," and our homecoming float modeled after that theme was excellent until it was destroyed by our jealous competitors. Once again we were represented by a stunning court: Debbie Schlegel, Cindy Purkiss, Cindy Curtis, Dave McKenzie, Scott Bruce, and John Derham.

The Seventy-Sixers brought home the (Basketball) World Championship to Philadelphia, and many of us missed school to attend their parade — rather, some of us actually ventured downtown, while many of us wrote early dismissal notes. Additionally, the CHS hockey club became popular in their quest for the Flyers Cup, and for the first time the Lacrosse team made it to the playoffs. We did retain a defeat in the Battle of the Pioneers, but there is still a question as to whether or not we were placed on the wet side of the gym during that final tug-of-war contest with the faculty, (that, by the way, decided the entire battle!).

The class officers of 1982-83; President - Jim Mihalison, Vice President - Debbie Schlegel, Secretary - Alice Bratschi, and Treasurer - John Derham, kept our spring busy and enjoyable. Cabaret was a huge success, and although the sound system left a bit to be desired, the delicious dinner (served by the delicious class of '84 waitresses) satisfied us all. The highlight of our year, however, had to have been the infamous Junior Prom. Though some of appeared to be enjoying ourselves more than others, all of us seemed to have had a good time. And, be honest, the fact that the band was unable to play "Ripples" (our theme song) really didn't matter as the evening wore on.

In spite of all the good times and successes of the past two years, it is quite evident that the members of the class of '84 are just naturally seniors. We have acclimated to the role of ruler, and have adjusted well to the added responsibilities and pressures (example: senior lunch). This year has made us face hardships, the departure of Mr. Kovach and Mr. Gasser, and an utter tragedy, the loss of Mr. Craney, but we have survived.

Our homecoming court as as gorgeous as ever with Dave McKenzie and Debbie Schlegel elected King and Queen, and John Derham, Ted Simpson, Cindy Curtis and Diana Prescott on the Court. We were also successful (again) in electing a competent class council, with President - Jim Mihalison, Vice President - Debbie Schlegel, Secretary - Alice Bratschi, and Treasurer - Laura Kuzma, whose hardwork was showcased in the fantastic 1984 Senior Variety Show.

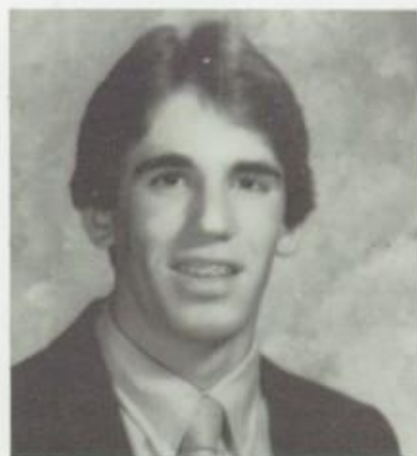

The senior girls must also be commended for their decorating (that was decoration?!) of the senior football players rooms. Their spirit was evident at the Football Rally - oh yeah, an apology to Rob, we didn't mean to crush you! A commendation additionally to all of those who strutted their, huh, bathing suits at the Beach Party. Senior girls always do have the best built, I mean nicest looking, suits.

There is so much more to comment on — Senior Week, Class Party, etc. — but unfortunately it hasn't happened yet so I'll have to let you fill in the rest. It seems inappropriate (at this time) to say good-bye so, to the class of 1984 — later ...
